Zahid is capable, hardworking, stable, business minded and honest. I have had the Opportunity to see him under many circumstances and trust him with my life. I recently took a trip with him in a van he borrowed from another friend. He had the van gone over thouroly at oil can Henry's and returned it meticulously cleaned and maintained.

I also can tell you that Zahid is a prolific volunteer who has trained as an Emergency Medical Technician, been a Red Cross volunteer, and repaired computers for my classroom At the White Swan School District.
