Dear Judge deFonzo;

I am not a veteran of a foreign war. Until recently, I rarely thought about doing volunteer or charity work, let alone made it my main focus in life. That is why I hold people like Zahid Chaudhry in awe. He does all the things I, a natural born US citizen, never has bothered to do. He risked his life for us so that we might have freedom. He was left in a wheelchair due to his service to this nation. He volunteers for multiple charities, firehouses, etc. All things I wish I could say the average American citizen does. But in reality we don't.

We need people like Zahid in this country. We need people who fight for justice, equality and the ability to survive in a nation that often leaves many to struggle. People who inspire us to be better. Please, do not take him away from us.

Sincerely,
